

HOW TO REMEMBER EAST BAY INNOVATIONS IN YOUR WILL

One advantage of giving by Will is the flexibility it offers. Four of the most popular forms bequests can take are:

A fixed amount of money or a designated property:

I give to (legal name and tax identification number), located in (City), (State),
$ _____ (or describe the real or personal property, including exact location.)

A percentage of the estate:

“I give to (legal name and tax identification number), located in (City), (State), _____%
of my estate.”

A residual bequest:

“I give all the residue of my estate, including real and personal property, to (legal name and tax identification number), located in (City), (State).”

A double-purpose bequest:

You can provide a relative or friend with income for life through a special gift to East Bay Innovations. You can do this by establishing a charitable trust through your Will. Upon your death, the trust pays income to the person you designate. After that person's death, whatever remains in the trust passes to our organization.

Remember to consult the appropriate professional when preparing legal documents, including changes to those documents which might involve a bequest. East Bay Innovations Federal tax identification number is: 94-3210351.
